

Dear _____,

I am exercising my right under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Section 609, to request information regarding an item that is listed on my consumer credit report.

Per section 609, I am entitled to see the source of the information, which is the original contract that contains my signature.

As proof of my identity, I have included copies of my birth certificate, Social Security card, passport, driver's license, W-2, rental agreement and cell phone bill. I have also included a copy of my credit report with the account I am requesting to have verified.

If you are unable to verify the account with the original contract, the information should be removed from my credit report within 30 days.

Sincerely,

Signature
